&&&

It has been brought to the notice of the Government that, there is ambiguity in certain Government Departments/Heads of the Department/District Collectors in implementing the Act No.15 of 2025 and Rules thereon, regarding the Rationalization of Reservations to Scheduled Castes by way of Sub-Classification issued by the Government vide references 1st to 4th cited.

2. Further, certain SC Associations/Madiga Employees Coordination Committee have requested the Government to issue clear instructions on implementation of Rule of Reservation in all admissions, all recruitments and in all promotions of the Government of Telangana.

3. In this regard, instructions were issued in the reference 5th cited, to all the Government Departments/Heads of the Department/District Collectors of Telangana State to follow and implement the said Act and G.Os scrupulously without any deviation and it is informed that the said guidelines are applicable to public appointments/promotions and seats for admissions into Educational Institutes. However, certain representations have been received stating that the aforesaid orders/guidelines/instructions are not being followed in case of promotions in respect of SC Categorization.

4. Therefore, the orders issued in the reference 5th cited are reiterated and all the Government Departments/Corporations/Universities/PSUs and other Autonomous Bodies etc. are requested to strictly adhere to the aforesaid orders/guidelines and instructions in all cases of appointments/appointment by transfer/promotions and seats for admissions into Educational Institutions without any deviation.
